

button. All right, Senator Hall says we may proceed. The Senator wants a roll call vote, so can we have silence (gavel) in the Chamber, please.

CLERK: Senator, I'll be happy to read it. Mr. President, Senator Hall would move to amend the bill. Section 4, page 2, strike $25 and insert $10.

PRESIDENT: Proceed with the roll call vote. All those in favor of the Hall amendment vote aye, opposed vote no.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken as found on pages 1365-66 of the Legislative Journal.) 22 ayes, 19 nays, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The motion fails. The call of the house is raised. Is there another amendment? The Clerk would like to read some matters into the record.

CLERK: Mr. President, the Committee on Education, whose Chairman is Senator Vickers, reports 204 to General File with amendments.

I have an Attorney General's Opinion to Senator Wesely, on 325. (See pages 1366-67 of the Legislative Journal.)

Senator Wesely would like to print amendments to 569, Senator Warner to 662, Senator Beutler to 451. (See pages 1367-72 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, the next amendment I have is by Senator Vickers. (See Vickers amendment to LB 496 found on page 1372 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: Senator Vickers.

SENATOR VICKERS: Mr. President, members, this amendment is an attempt to determine whether or not the proponents of this piece of legislation are really concerned about safety, or if they are concerned about what automobile manufacturers might have to put on cars. It is an attempt to separate those two issues. In the bill, as we have it right now, there is a sentence that says any driver transporting a child who is four years of age or more, but is less than 16 years of age, shall be responsible for securing such child in a safety belt if the child is riding in the front seat of the motor vehicle. The amendment that I've got up
